Southlake, Texas- 151 Sports Marketing, a promoter of amateur sporting events, is proud to announce a special offer and opportunity for basketball fans in the Metroplex. Avery Heating and Air, the name and title sponsor of the Avery Air Invitational holiday basketball tournament at Plano High School, wants everyone to dust off their basketball gear and enter the "Easy 3 Sweepstakes" at www.averyair.com. Randomly chosen entrants will have a chance to make a lay-up, free throw, and three pointer for a grand prize of $5000. All "Easy 3 Sweepstakes" rules and regulations are at www.averyair.com. Don Norris, General Manager of Avery Air had these observations. "I think we are going to give away 5000 bucks! I love this contest as it can be done! Everyone who can shoot a basketball should go to the website and enter. No matter if you are chosen or not everyone is a winner. Each person who registers will receive a complimentary winter tune-up on their heating system for simply entering the Sweepstakes."
